Prosh

Prosh actually comes from Procession (supposedly!), and it is a parade that people from Uni take part in to help raise money for charity. But it is not the parade as such that everyone looks forward to, it is the Prosh Jokes, also designed to raise money.

1994 was a classic year with some fairly outrageous tricks. One could mention the Med students especially.

AUScA put in quite an effort as well and became legends of Prosh '94. We even got into the Advertiser! Suffice to say, our stunt involved the Ronald M<sup>C</sup>Donald on the seat in the Myer Centre and a mad dash by over 40 AUScA members for the safety of the Uni! You may notice as you walk past Ronny baby next time, that he is bolted down tightly and they have painted over the bolts.

Let's see if we can't top it this year!

Winery Tour

The 51st Hardy's winery tour is to be held on Sunday 21st of May. Last years' was a huge success, with rhubarb spew being the highlight of the trip. As is the tradition, the President is to be indecently exposed - and I think there's something in that for all of us, well, maybe not! The cost of this year's trip is $10, and we'll be leaving from the Barr Smith Lawns at 10:30, to return at 5:00.

A BBQ lunch and tast testing is provided in the cost, followed by the opportunity to stock up on large amounts of bevarages for a great price. We're catering for about 100 people so bring your friends (if they're single, male, over 18ys, about 5ft 9 and have lots of money, especially). (We'd like to see that...Eds).

Tickets will be available soon from the SAUA offices.

1995 Pub Crawl

Greetings Drinkers! The posters are up, and this year we look like we're organised. The AUScA Larger Expedition (A.L.E) is set for Friday 28 April, starting at 6:00pm at the Unibar.

This year we plan to cover 14 pubs, and have even gone to the extent of organising some special deals along the way - more details on the night.

Don't forget to get your T-Shirt before th crawl, so see Wally (the one with no hair) to put in an order.

Cheers!

Wally

President's Report

Hello Everyone,

It's good to see things beginning to happen, people are getting involved, and we are nearly organised! AUScA looks to be in good stead for the coming year.

I've been asked to write this thing, but what do I have to say that interests you? So here's a little problem...

Three people are having lunch at the Paradox Grill. The bill for the meal was $30, so each diner gives the waiter $10.

After he leaves, they have second thoughts about the bill and call the manager. "We were overcharged", one says "I ordered rare steak, and mine was burnt to a crisp. The coffee was cold, the lettuce was wilted, and the service was terrible."

The manager apologised and said he would take care of it. He went to the till and took out 5 $1 coins and called the waiter. "The people at your table are making a fuss", he said. "Here's $5 - give it to them as a refund"

As the waiter walked to the table he thought to himself, "It's going to be difficult to divide $5 three ways. I'll keep two dollars myself, and give them three. Besides that'll make up for the tip they probably won't leave." So he slipped $2 into his pocket and gave $1 to each customer.

Now the diners have paid $9 each - that's $27. Add the $2 in the waiters pocket - that's $29. Where's the other dollar?

Thanks folks - P.S. let's keep AUScA alive!

MORALS 1995

Here's what AUSca's been up to recently. If you're on this list you should be ashamed of yourself. If you're not on this list you should be ashamed of yourself.

O' CAMP

Youngblood kept referring to the enormity of his gonads- is this an insecurity complex showing up or is it just a warning for the safety of humankind.

Paul & Luke were big girls and scammed lifts to the beach every day.

Matt Brown for dyeing his jeans a new way-- his spew (Byoooooofull!)

Lia for automatically going into AUSca mode-- by scoring every male within reach as quickly as possible.

Susannah & Sam for positioning themselves on the table (and each other) in order to see the movies better-- doggy-style comfy, guys??

Christina for being Miss O' Camp-- she was the Krustiest girl.

Ben for being Mr O' Camp-- he was definitely the Krustiest guy.

ENGIE PUB CRAWL

Kylie Tucker for scoring 10 guys before passing out at the 4th pub.

Coby for spitting after trying 8 times to skull a half yard glass.

Michael S. & Simon D. for pissing in a widow's birdbath.

MICHELLE'S PARTY

Brett Stocker for giving Michelle a birthday present-- his tongue.

Michael C. for falling so in love with the girl he was scoring he passed out.

Simon for telling someone to grow their hair "because chicks like it."

and that's not all...

Pete Bice for pissing out of Chris Miiitz's car going down Fullarton Road.

Kylie Tucker for multiple scores at the Geology BBQ including Tom Kivior.

Tom Kivior for multiple scores at the Geology BBQ including Kylie Tucker.

Tom K. & Toni for having each other surgically attached.

Krusty & Ben-- the Geology lecturers were wanting to ask you- was there tongue in that?? Dumb question really, isn't it guys?

... and what has Jason Chatterton, our illustrious president, been up to?

Pretty impressive for the first term, guys, but there's 6 months to go!
Keep on being immoral!

And remember, if your name doesn't appear at least once in the year, you get a special prize-- your very own GROOF!!
