and if enough interest they can talk to Tyson (on ya Tys!).

Winery Tour

Jo in charge. Prosh ends on the 19th therefore Kylie won't be in any state to go that weekend. Alternative dates are the 5th and 26th (of May I think??). We (I mean I) want the wine in the vats! To avoid annoying Barbara anymore we can do the traditional tour and then enjoy the free drinks and move on. Apparently there is a park or oval just down the road. Try to get a bus with windows and if they refuse get an agreement that we hold no responsibility for any vomit on the bus (especially by the Sale's!!). Jo will organise by next week.

Prosh

Ideas for stealing things - The horse at Bonnets, too expensive if anything goes wrong and we break it. The big scotsman (Brett) well I don't think that needs a comment. "Roast the Scotty's man" hmmm.

Money

Petrol - Jo needs $20 and money for the sticky tape she bought. Youngbloods beloved mobile $30 for use at the beach at O'Camp (was that necessary??).

Tyson $27 for phone calls.

Tiff wants a corvette or will settle for $20 for phone calls.

Kirsten wants some money for phone calls too but I can't remember how much.

REPORTS

Pub Crawl

A roaring, retching success. There are still T Shirts left over which are mostly large sizes. Carrie helped to organise but never bought a T Shirt poor effort girly. Does anyone remember much? - Kylie, Carrie now buys a T shirt. "Carrie couldn't score or enjoy herself!". The Chuppa chups game was good - Youngblood. The rumour is not true and Nicole is not contagious! Well! Not enough beer tickets? Have a chat to Wally about where they all went and why some people missed out. Need to approve the $200 on the bar, seconded by Mark and Kirsten and Tiffany ofcourse!!

Bookswap

Lots of dosh $9000 in bank, still need to pay back O'Camp $1000 and book exchange $1000. Only have 2 weeks left to collect books or cheques. A bit of confusion about the "mid semester break". Make sure next year that the book prices do not go on last years prices. Need to sort out complaints on people claiming we didn't sell there books for enough money. Should we let people elect there own prices?

COMMITTEE MEETING

26th of March 1996

APOLOGIES

Nicole Sale for being late due to bonking Heath.

Meeting opened at 6:11pm, seconded by Tyson.
Minutes of last meeting accepted as absent

BUSINESS

Rules

The official rules of debate were summarised and read to all members. A warning against missing meetings was also given. Kylie dared question the chair by asking where the agenda is (oops).

Fundraising - Movie Night

Youngblood's update - The Academy has "The best deals in town". Up to 200 people the rates are $6.50 for adults and $4.50 for concession. 200 people and over, $5.50 adults and $3.50 for concession. There is a minimum number of people required (10) but we won't have to worry about that as we all will be attending. Able to see any of the current movies at the time. An advantage is there is no upfront money required and all money made is profit. Not a lot of money will be made but can run a few small events like this throughout the year. Movie dinner deal maybe an option although cheap meals are available from the mansions, we can meet there for those who want to eat and then go to the movies.

Bus to the drive in - Not as many people would go, the problem of having to give upfront money for the hire of the bus. Winter's coming up and Mark won't be able to see the screen.
BBQ - Across the road from Billy's as you don't have to pay for the BBQ, although AUSCA has a BBQ anyway.

Kill-a-Keg

Archery Park - BBQ area, forest area where targets are set up, walk through and shoot at the targets.
Skirmish - paint balls shot at people (I personally think this sounds cool).

Go Karts - Can only have 15 people at once

Orgy - No cost and can charge $10 per head DESSERT!!! Vote taken, all for.

Prosh - roundabout, can take a percentage of the money we make. Back to the movie idea - Motion by Youngblood to do it, seconded by Billy and Mark is not allowed to attend. Which night? Not Friday's as the cinema would already make enough money, Thursday seems good, last thursday before holidays 11th of April, need later in week for advertising. Price of ticket increase - $1.50 motion by Kylie, seconded by Simon, 3 against motion passed (ofcourse Mark was against).

PIZZA BREAK

Oakbank

Pete Carrigan can't do it, nobody really interested in organising it. Too late to organise the camping side "You can't camp on the track!!". Decided the issue will be brought up at the general meeting Union Buildings, University of Adelaide, Adelaide, S.A. 5001
