The meeting opened at 7.33 pm. with Dave O'Loughlin in the chair.

(1) Apologies: Alison Woodget, Shane Brooks, Debbie Bishop, Phil Clarke, John Warburton, Tim Jaeger, Bob Bradley

Motion 1: "That the apologies be accepted." Steven Barry/Mathew Lowry carried 7.34 pm.

Motion 2: "That visitors be heard." Beat Bodmer/Julie Byrne carried 7.34 pm.

(2) Minutes: The acceptance of the minutes of the previous meeting was postponed until the next meeting, pending a financial report for the O'Camp being supplied.

(3) Business Arising from the minutes: - none.

(4) Correspondence:

- Carol Woolmer re Prosh revival. To be discussed under 'future events'
- Shaun Minahan re Student Activities Council survey on Clubrooms.
- Con Stough (President, A.U. Astronomy Club) re the Soccer Match.

(5) Questions - With Notice:

- "Should AUScA become incorporated." A debate occured over the meaning, advantages and disadvantages of incorporation. Paul Brooks volunteered to seek legal advice.

- Without Notice: - none.

(6) Reports:

- Morals Report (Mathew Lowry).

Motion 3: "That the Morals Report be accepted." Paul Brooks/Justin Gum carried 8.08 pm.

- Treasurer's Report (Carolyn Schultz) - verbal.
- ComeOut '85 Festival (Paul Brooks) - verbal.
  - The festival is a youth "ARTS" festival, and a scientific contribution such as a telescope viewing was not deemed suitable by the organisers, unless incorporated in a play or similar activity.

- Any Other:
  - Talks (Mathew Lowry) - verbal.
    - Dr. Roger Clay and Peter May, a Ph.D. student will present the talk at 6.30 pm. Monday 1st of July in the Horace Lamb lecture theatre.
    - Much discussion arose on the subject of having more talks. The consensus was that wine and cheese, etc. be purchased for the evening, and that as much advertising as possible be placed as much of it is free, such as Bread & Circuses, On Dit, Diary of Events, and any other publications.

(7) Any Other Business:

- Soccer Match: Date is Friday 28th June, John Edwards suggested as Captain in his absence.
- Science Faculty Representative:
  nom: Mathew Lowry
  elected 8.15 pm.
- Annual Dinner:
  - Still looking for a venue.
  - A.U.Sc.A can subsidise tickets by $1 or $2, depending on the success of the Re'O camp.
- Letter to Lego Ltd., Denmark:
  - Suggested that the President, Secretary and John Edwards as Vice-Patron all sign the letter.
- A.U.Sc.A printed envelopes:
  - Carolyn Schultz to look into the costs of printers, etc.
- Future Events:
  - Debating (Nehru Shield): 3 members required, a good response from volunteers was obtained.
  - Progressive Dinner:
    - Various suggestions of methods for running such an event were put forward, including 2 groups of 20 that mingle as they go.
    - Concern was raised over people being picked up for drink-driving. It was pointed out that, just as for any party, it is the responsibility of the driver not to drink.
  - Volleyball Match:
    - the Uni. Gym is the best place to play.
  - Another Winery Tour:
    - a suggestion was that this time we hire a bus and tour many wineries, not just one.

(8) Next Meeting: Monday 8th July, 7.00 pm.

The meeting was closed at 8.35 pm.
